MANDARIN ORIENTAL, JAKARTA – GENERAL INFORMATION

Mandarin Oriental, Jakarta opened its doors in 1979 and quickly became one of the most refined meeting venues for Jakarta's society and the expatriate community. After a comprehensive renovation, the property reopened in October 2009 as the most luxurious and contemporary hotel in the city.

Strategically located in the heart of Jakarta's financial and diplomatic district, the hotel offers excellent access to both commercial and diplomatic hubs within the city comprises 272 spacious guestrooms and suites. All are designed in a contemporary style by the renowned design firm Lim, Teo and Wilkes (LTW), who imbued every modern facility with the Group's Asian heritage while combining it with Indonesian aspects.

Mandarin Oriental, Jakarta has also completed a total renovation of its Events and Meeting facilities complimenting its range of award winning restaurants appealing to both residents and local patrons with choice, value and excellent cuisine. More than 1,000 square meters of luxurious meeting and banqueting facilities for up to 800 guests come equipped with the latest meeting technology, with all space enhanced by natural daylight.

The boutique atmosphere of the hotel is greatly enhanced by the intimacy, luxury, security, stringent health and safety protocols and the very highest levels of personalized service, reflecting both the heritage of the Mandarin Oriental brand and the warmth and friendliness of true Indonesian hospitality.

Three restaurants feature a range of international cuisine from quintessential Cantonese to authentic French dining. There is also a signature Mandarin Cake Shop and the chic MO Bar overlooking Jakarta's main thoroughfare.
