MANDARIN ORIENTAL, JAKARTA – DINING

Mandarin Oriental, Jakarta offers an exciting array of award-winning dining venues for hotel guests and residents alike, ranging from Asian cuisine to European dining.

Lyon

Using fresh, seasonal ingredients, Lyon offers a range of classic dishes from across France. In essence, this brasserie delivers the very best of French cuisine in a relaxed and casual environment. The warm, light coloured tone of the main hall is complemented by classic French designed wallpaper combined with contemporary artworks.

Lyon offers two elegant and unique private dining rooms, The Glass Room and The Beaujolais. The Glass Room is uniquely located between two glass-walled wine cellars and complemented by a large floor-to-ceiling glass window overlooking the lobby area. Plush maroon hues, a long wooden table and a classy chandelier gives this private dining room, which can accommodate up to ten guests, a majestic air.

The Beaujolais is adorned with sheer white shades, an elegant chandelier and a solid black long table to seat up to 16 guests. Overlooking the main thoroughfare, this private dining room is the perfect venue for an intimate dinner or cocktail party.

The main restaurant area can seat up to 97 guests and up to 100 for a cocktail reception.

Li Feng

Jakarta's newest dining destination, Li Feng, offers authentic, lavish Cantonese cuisine in an ethereal, classic and culturally rich space. The restaurant offers exquisite culinary delights where every dish is masterfully crafted to bring guests warm and visually stunning delicacies with a surprising modern twist.

Partnering with Chef Fei from the Two Michelin-starred Jiang at Mandarin Oriental, Guangzhou, Li Feng's menu presents a scrumptious blend of traditional dishes and a creative rendition of classics such as the beautifully presented Deep-Fried Swan Dumpling with Black Pepper Duck Meat and Braised Hele Crab with Japanese Rice in Hoisin Sauce.

With interiors inspired by the history of the spices trade between China and the old Jakarta, Batavia, the restaurant offers three elegant and distinctive private dining rooms, all ideally suited to intimate gatherings and private celebrations.

Opening hours:

Lunch: 11.30 am-2.00 pm – Monday to Friday, 11 am-3pm – Saturday and Sunday

Dinner: 6-10.30 pm – Monday to Sunday

An inviting space for casual dining, day or night, this chic restaurant flaunts a subtle Southeast Asian theme with distinct modern touches. As an accent statement, traditional batik is ‘deconstructed’ and then reinterpreted as striking panels on various walls.

Upon entering the restaurant, diners view a dessert counter displaying a delectable array of cakes, pastries and breads. The main dining room is flanked on one side by floor-to-ceiling windows, bathing the area in natural light. This soothing setting is further enhanced by a green landscaped view beyond the windows. Quilted columns serve to define the space, instilling both an element of intimacy and understated grandeur. Separating the main dining room from the tea/breakfast area is a trendy juice bar where tasty thirst quenchers are freshly prepared.

Opening hours: 6am to 10.30pm daily

Brunch: 12pm to 3 pm – Sunday
