MANDARIN ORIENTAL, LAGO DI COMO OPENS FOR THE SEASON ON 15 APRIL 2021 WITH A ‘RESET, RELAX, RENEW’ PACKAGE

Hong Kong, 8 April 2021 – Mandarin Oriental, Lago di Como has announced the reopening of its doors for the summer season, scheduled for 15 April 2021. Immersed in a blooming botanical park and nestled on the shores of charming Lake Como, this elegant resort is the definitive Italian destination.

Ideal for the ultimate wellness retreat, the hotel invites guests to enjoy a rejuvenating reprieve following the unprecedented challenges this year. New heights of wellbeing are in reach with its new Reset, Relax, Renew package, which includes accommodation, spa treatments and a private wellness experience designed to regenerate both body and mind.

Further enhancements have been made to the resort’s accommodation and public areas during the seasonal closure, including a complete makeover of its Panoramic Suite, which now offers the ultimate in both luxury and privacy and features an oversized terrace with sundeck and a private pool overlooking the lake.

The resort’s wellness facilities are located within its lush gardens, and comprise expansive treatment suites, a vertical Kneipp circuit, indoor pool, Mediterranean bath and a Himalayan salt room. The expert team offers total rejuvenation with tailored experiences such as Oriental Essence, using custom-blended oriental oils and movements to treat the whole body. Additional leisure activities include relaxing by the seemingly floating heated outdoor swimming pool on the lake, yoga and personal training. Guests can also enjoy hiking and biking along the surrounding panoramic peaks as well as water sports, super car driving and golf at one of the nearby courses.
