Hong Kong, 24 January 2017 – The Landmark Mandarin Oriental, Hong Kong has unveiled the first of two new suites. Designed by award-winning Hong Kong architect, Joyce Wang, The Apartment Suite is a home-away-from-home located on the hotel’s top floor. By booking the Central Retreat accommodation package, specially launched to mark the debut, guests can enjoy the stylish, contemporary surroundings of the new suite and many other benefits.

Designed in the style of a luxury private apartment, the glamorous new 1,500 square foot suite showcases Wang’s trademark elegant aesthetic and detailing.

The suite’s stylish entrance leads to an open plan living area filled with furnishings custom-designed in a palette of gold, caramel and royal blue, and with natural wood floors. Specially commissioned artworks complete the subtle yet luxurious experience.

Designed to impress, the dining space is equipped with a chic cocktail bar and pantry for showcasing gourmet treats. A sophisticated, comfortable retreat, the spacious living area features a sumptuous, velvety-soft, 3-metre wide, curved sofa with two matching armchairs, and an enormous, richly textured hand-tufted rug. A centrepiece of the study area is a large bespoke desk with trademark Wang translucent acrylic base.
