THE NEW SPA AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL HYDE PARK, LONDON OFFERS NEXT GENERATION WELLNESS AND BEAUTY

As part of its extensive renovation programme, Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London unveiled a new contemporary spa, wellness and beauty facility in late May 2018.

The redesign of the next-generation of The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, London has been overseen by renowned international designer, Adam D. Tihany, introducing impressive new features and fresh, elegant interiors. The spa redesign takes inspiration from traditional Chinese fashion and symbolism, providing a contemporary environment that reflects the attention to detail and harmony of elements found in Chinese philosophy. Two original floral wall features symbolise both rebirth and the flow of energy, while the colour palette reflects those found in nature and natural materials, such as solid woods and precious metals. In keeping with the fresh, new look, guests benefit from several exclusive partnerships with some of the most sought-after health and wellness experts.

Included as part of the spa's 13 treatment rooms, is a new spacious Oriental Suite with two massage beds and a Rasul water temple that combines the health enhancing properties of heat, steam and mud for a totally relaxing and skin conditioning treatment. The extensive spa menu represents a tailor-made combination of Mandarin Oriental's own signature therapies, together with treatments and journeys for the face and body using Mandarin Oriental's bespoke signature oils, Aromatherapy Associates, Sodashi and Linda Meredith products. Guests can also discover the powerful and effective Nescens cosmeceutical and anti-ageing face and body treatments for both men and women.

In addition to the spa treatment rooms, there is a room for traditional ASANTE Chinese Medicine consultations and treatments; a Bastien Gonzalez Pedi:Mani:Cure Studio and two additional beauty rooms providing a series of results-driven express treatments, for those who are short of time, including a soothing hair therapy treatment by Philip Kingsley.
