About Weddings

Set in glamorous Knightsbridge behind an impressive Victorian facade, Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London offers the complete wedding package for every bride-to-be, including in-house wedding experts, award-winning cuisine and gracious service. With the verdant backdrop of Hyde Park and glittering view of Knightsbridge, Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London is where town meets country at one address.

The Ballroom at Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park has been the setting for many opulent weddings and extravagant parties, including Queen Elizabeth II’s reception on the eve of the royal marriage of Prince William and Catherine Middleton in 2011. In addition to a private Knightsbridge entrance, there is a Royal Entrance through which the bride and groom may enter with permission from the Crown Estate.

With specialists in Western, Chinese and Middle Eastern cuisine the culinary team offers fine dining from around the world under the expert guidance of executive chef, Chris Tombling. The Terrace provides a tranquil, outdoor setting for a drinks reception, and the hotel can host an “after party” in Lower Ground Floor events spaces, with late night license until 3am.
