MANDARIN ORIENTAL RITZ, MADRID – GENERAL INFORMATION

Mandarin Oriental Ritz, Madrid is a luxury Belle Époque palace located in the famous Golden Triangle of Art in Madrid. For over 110 years, the hotel has hosted royalty, dignitaries and distinguished guests from around the world and this spectacular property is the epitome of luxury and excellence.

After completing the largest renovation in the building's history, the original Hotel Ritz, Madrid reopened as Mandarin Oriental Ritz, Madrid on 15 April 2021. Renowned Spanish architect, Rafael de La-Hoz, and internationally acclaimed French designers, Gilles & Boissier, collaborated on the project, restoring the hotel with careful skill, resulting in the finest accommodation in the city.

With 100 elegantly designed rooms and 53 spacious suites, the hotel offers a choice of accommodation ranging in size from 29sqm - 188sqm. Spread over the top six floors of the hotel and designed by Paris-based studio Gilles & Boissier, all décor exudes a classic, contemporary feel with a soothing colour palette, luxurious fabrics and modern design accents. Views stretch out over the city, with many rooms and suites overlooking the Prado Museum.

The recent renovation has introduced two new Mandarin & Ritz Suites, located in the turrets, of the top floor. These, along with the Presidential and Royal Suites, provide the most exclusive accommodation available in Madrid.

As a gastronomic destination, the hotel has cemented its reputation for excellence through its collaboration on each of its five dining outlets with esteemed Spanish chef Quique Dacosta. Chef Dacosta was previously awarded five Michelin stars for two of his restaurants and is widely regarded as one of the most exciting chefs working in Europe today.

Deessa, the hotel's signature restaurant offers guests the chance to explore mouth-watering flavours in the striking setting of the Alfonso XIII room or for a truly special experience, to take a seat in the unique Show Kitchen. During the summer months, the restaurant opens out onto the terrace, to make the most of Madrid's inviting climate.

Set underneath a stunning glass domed ceiling, Palm Court offers two alternative dining destinations. Serving continental breakfasts, light lunch plates, Afternoon Tea and light evening dinner menus, Hall Alto acts as a meeting place for guests and visitors alike. The hotel's second main restaurant is located in Hall Bajo, a relaxed bistro concept where diners can enjoy classic Ritz dishes served with a contemporary twist.

Pictura, the hotel's bar, provides a luxurious experience, serving an extensive cocktail menu alongside tapas and a choice of artisanal beers. In addition, guests can enjoy the refined atmosphere of the Champagne Bar, situated near Hall Bajo, or head outside to make the most of the El Jardín del Ritz. Serving al fresco drinks and seasonal relaxed dining, it has its own outdoor bar with a menu also designed by Dacosta.

The hotel also provides a choice of meeting and banqueting facilities suited to both business and leisure events and offers Mandarin Oriental's signature Mindful Meetings concept.

A new state-of-the-art wellness centre provides guests with an escape from urban life, focusing on their wellbeing with a new indoor swimming pool, a vitality pool, experience showers, a complete fitness centre and a treatment room to restore mind, body and soul.

As with all Mandarin Oriental properties, Mandarin Oriental Ritz, Madrid has its own unique antique signature 'fan' which is proudly showcased in the hotel's lobby.
