MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MARRAKECH – THE KIDS’ KASBAH

Tucked away in the resort’s gardens, the Kids’ Kasbah promises an entertaining and educational experience for little ones. More than just any ordinary kids’ club, the Kids’ Kasbah introduces children to Moroccan culture through a series of arts and crafts workshops and offers other exciting diversions, such as film screenings and opportunities to get close to nature.

A natural club

Nestled next to the resort’s farm and chef’s potager, the Kids’ Kasbah is the perfect spot for children to discover the natural world. Cookery classes with the chef, gardening and playing with animals are some of the many fun activities they can join. Encouraging environmental awareness is at the core of everything that’s taught.

A cultural club

Children will have an exceptional opportunity to learn about Moroccan culture by joining workshops on the country’s many arts and crafts, such as pottery, mosaics, painting, Berber carpet weaving and Arabic calligraphy. What’s more, they can improve their wellbeing at yoga and stretching sessions and enjoy the excitement of watching films in the open air, under the stars.

By offering a diverse selection of learning experiences, The Kids’ Kasbah’s goes beyond what’s available at a standard kids’ club, enabling children to develop their creativity in a fun and caring environment.

An authentic club

The architecture of the resort’s kids’ club was inspired by the concept of the kasbah, the iconic fortified citadel found in Morocco’s historic cities.
