MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MARRAKECH – DINING

Mandarin Oriental, Marrakech features four restaurants for guests to enjoy a diverse array of dishes.

Shirvan Mètisse Restaurant

Shirvan Mètisse restaurant is designed by architectural duo Gilles and Boissier as a “modern refuge with Berber and Andalusian Arab influences”. The relaxing atmosphere blends the modern with Oriental culture and the Tales from the Arabian Nights.

The Michelin-starred Chef Akrame Benallal brings the aromas of the Orient, Europe and Asia with the scents of the nearby Medina to create dishes with a special textures, tastes and aromas. The menu represents an invitation to a gastronomic world tour. Guests can order a small Tartare of Bluefin Tuna, with an unmistakably Far-Eastern character, zkhoug (a hot sauce from Yemen) and chimichurri (a sauce from South America). There’s also a Pastilla de Homard (Lobster Tart), and a magnificent Shoulder of Suckling Lamb Confit en Croûte.

The idea of fusion underpins the style of the Oriental and international cuisine of the new Shirvan, a source of richness and diversity. To accompany these outstanding dishes, Chef Akrame, has some vegetarian fusions like a legendary Tahini-Roasted Cauliflower with orange blossom.

Many of the vegetables come straight from the hotel’s 100% organic Potager. The potager also boasts a fine collection of herbs, vegetables, and salads, which give the dishes and desserts exotic flavours and aromas.

Shirvan Mètisse Restaurant and Bar are open from Monday to Saturday from 7pm to 11pm.

Le Salon Berbère

Adjacent to Shirvan Métisse, Le Salon Berbère offers an exceptional view over both the resort's blue and green pools and the Atlas Mountains and makes for a lively dining room that morphs throughout the day. Ideal for breakfast, where the buffet includes many traditional Moroccan specialties such as Msamen – small squared-pancakes that are eaten hot with a little honey – as well as Western dishes. The wooden buffet table, its top carved from a block of marble, was designed by Gilles & Boissier. Le Salon Berbère is then transformed into a pastry counter for afternoon tea, when the restaurant takes on the feel of a tea room, with sweets and delicacies displayed under stylish glass bells, for eating in or takeaway. The atmosphere changes again at sunset, as Salon Berbere morphs into a champagne bar, perfect for a pre- or after-dinner drink.

Open continually from 7am until midnight every day, Le Salon Berbere can accommodate 40 covers, including seating for 20 outside.

Pool Garden

Beside the main pool, Pool Garden is a refreshing spot to enjoy lunch outdoors. The menu offers a selection of healthy dishes designed around fresh fruits and vegetables sourced directly from the Potager. Light Mediterranean-inspired dishes such as crunchy vegetables with anchovy dressing or sweet red pepper gazpacho are complemented by the fish of the day from the seafood grill, or the truffled croque monsieur.

The small islands on the water ponds can be used for a quiet drink or a more private lunch, while a handful of tables in the shade of the bougainvillea complement those of the adjoining garden.

The restaurant is open daily for lunch from 12pm to 4pm and hosts 53 covers. Service around the pool operates from 7.30am until sunset.
