MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MIAMI BACKGROUNDER

Mandarin Oriental, Miami, open to guests since November 2000, continues to provide unsurpassed levels of luxury and service in Miami. The urban oasis is ideally located on Brickell Key, a 44-acre island in Biscayne Bay that is considered one of Miami's most prestigious commercial and residential locations, sitting just minutes from Miami's international financial district and conveniently located for Miami International Airport, South Beach, Wynwood Arts District, the Design District and Coconut Grove. Since 2016, the hotel has been awarded the Forbes Travel Guide Five-Star Award, while The Spa has also held this prestigious honor since 2012.

The deluxe 326-room waterfront hotel, with its contemporary and dynamic design, features spacious guest rooms and suites, all of which offer spectacular views of Biscayne Bay and the city skyline. The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Miami combines pampering and rejuvenating treatments for mind, body and spirit with an exclusive Beauty by Mandarin Oriental line that features results-oriented treatments. Other hotel features include a comprehensive fitness center, infinity-edge swimming pool, pool cafe and jogging trail circling the island, chic shopping experiences at Karma Gift Shop, the award-winning signature Peruvian restaurant La Mar by Gastón Acurio, and the high-energy MO Bar + Lounge, a lounge that features freshly muddled cocktails and overlooks Biscayne Bay. For events of all sizes, conference and banqueting facilities offering 15,000-square-feet of meeting space can accommodate more than 600 people.

Guest Rooms

The hotel's spacious guest rooms and suites evoke a serene, residential feel and provide spectacular views from balconies and terraces overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, Biscayne Bay and the Miami skyline. Tranquil and elegant havens, the guest room interiors draw on the sophistication of a cosmopolitan city with diverse cultural influences, combining contemporary touches from South Florida with exotic Asian elements such as bamboo hardwood floors in the hotel's suites.

Spa Facilities

The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Miami is a tri-level sanctuary offering panoramic waterfront views and holistic treatments that blend elements of the east and west. Each spa experience has been created as a sequence of rituals and treatments inspired by the elements of life and oriental traditions. Glass elevators transport guests from the lobby level and pool deck to The Spa, with 18 treatment rooms, including six private suites (and three couple suites), along with a Beauty Room designated for the exclusive results-oriented treatment line, Beauty by Mandarin Oriental. All suites have glass windows overlooking the bay, while adjoining The Spa is a comprehensive fitness center and infinity-edge pool overlooking Biscayne Bay.

Dining

The hotel's chic and dynamic waterfront dining overlooking Biscayne Bay has continued to make it a culinary must-visit. La Mar by Gastón Acurio is a lively waterfront restaurant featuring the acclaimed Peruvian dishes of celebrity chef Gastón Acurio, considered 'the ambassador of Peruvian cuisine.'

MO Bar + Lounge, an elegant bar and lounge, boasts the most expansive views of the Biscayne Bay with two-story, floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the waterfront and the Miami skyline.

Oasis Pool Café, a casual al fresco poolside dining featured an exquisite menu of fresh cuisine with handcrafted cocktails and tropical culinary delights.

Retail Facilities

Located in our hotel lobby, Karma Gift Shop is a luxury retail outlet that offers sundries and necessities, men and women's clothing and stylish accessories such as sunglasses and tote bags, as well as exclusive reminders of your stay at Mandarin Oriental, Miami such as our signature luxury robes and other distinctive merchandise.
