FLAVIA DAUDAN-CAPONI APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER OF MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MIAMI

Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group has announced the appointment of Flavia Daudan-Caponi as General Manager of Mandarin Oriental, Miami.

Italian national Mrs. Daudan-Caponi was previously General Manager of Mandarin Oriental, Prague, a position she held in the Czech Republic since 2019. Prior to that appointment she was Hotel Manager at the prestigious Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London where she helped oversee the $130m renovation of the hotel.

Mrs. Daudan-Caponi brings more than 30 years' experience in Sales & Marketing and Operations in the global luxury hotel industry, much of it within the Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group, in destinations including Geneva and Bangkok.

"I am thrilled to be taking on this prestigious position in one of the world's most exciting, dynamic and progressive cities. The entire team and I are excited to build on the hotel's reputation and further elevate the bespoke service, discrete luxury and innovative experiences for which the Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group brand is renowned", she commented.

Daudan-Caponi started her career in Sales & Marketing and held senior management positions within luxury hotels in London and Beijing. She joined Mandarin Oriental in 2001 as Director of Sales and Marketing for the award-winning Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok.

She holds an Executive MBA from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology in Australia and a Post Graduate Diploma in Hospitality Management from the prestigious Hotel Management School "Les Roches".
