MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MUNICH – THE COSMOPOLITAN GEM IN THE HEART OF MUNICH

Centrally located, yet quietly tucked away in a side street near the famed Maximilianstrasse, Mandarin Oriental, Munich is an elegant gem, combining timeless, sophisticated charm with a contemporary, modern design and subtle Oriental accents. The hotel provides the highest level of personalized service in the city centre and is home to a selection of stylish, elegant restaurants and bars, including Matsuhisa. Munich by world renowned Chef Nobu Matsuhisa. The hotel's elegant and spacious 48 guestrooms and 25 suites offer the finest in international luxury and, along with the stunning rooftop, feature views that stretch across the picturesque surroundings of the old town.

Marking its 20th anniversary as a Mandarin Oriental property, the hotel underwent its most extensive renovation and has now unveiled all new guest rooms and suites.

From an Opera House to One of the City's Finest Addresses

Built in 1880, originally hosting the city's ballroom, the Neo-Renaissance building became a hotel in 1990 and was operated by the Rafael Hotel Group before Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group took over in 2000. Mandarin Oriental, Munich rapidly established itself and nowadays represents one of the best addresses in the Bavarian capital. While offering the legendary and unpretentious Mandarin Oriental service, Mandarin Oriental, Munich additionally provides modern amenities to ensure the comfort and convenience that one would expect from a world class and modern luxury hotel.

Living in Comfort and With Style

Each of the hotel's 48 guest rooms and 25 suites enjoys a well-orchestrated mix of styles, colours and patterns, combining furniture with historic heritage with a fresh and contemporary look and colour scheme. The art concepts in each room feature individual mountain images by local artist Felix Rehfeld, paying tribute to Munich's geographical location as the gateway to the Alps. The art in all suites includes a mountain massif exclusively produced for the hotel by Royal Bavarian porcelain manufacturer, Nymphenburg.

Dine & Drink at Mandarin Oriental, Munich

With the opening of the restaurant “Matsuhisa, Munich” in November 2015, Mandarin Oriental, Munich introduced the award-winning cuisine of internationally celebrated Chef Nobuyuki (Nobu) Matsuhisa to Munich and Germany. It follows the same successful format as Matsuhisa Beverly Hills and its other exclusive dependences around the world. Offering Nobu’s renowned Japanese-Peruvian cuisine, with an emphasis on seafood, the menu of Head chef Shigeru Fujita features signature dishes such as the legendary Black Cod and Yellowtail Sashimi with Jalapeños, as well as traditionally prepared Sushi. Matsuhisa, Munich opens daily for lunch and dinner.

Adjacent to the spacious lobby area, The Lounge is the ideal retreat and meeting place for hotel guests. Dominating colors are gold, bright green and purple. Coffee, afternoon tea and international snacks are being served all-day with seasonally changing lunch menus. The newly instated Mandarin Cake Shop offers delicious home-made cakes and pastries by chef Chef Pâtissier Roshlee Cardoso.

Particularly popular during the summer months, “The Terrace” on the top of the eighth floor offers breathtaking 360-degree views over the cityscape and the Alps. The Terrace is open daily for dinner from May to September.

Late into the night the Ory Bar offers a wide variety of cocktails and drinks in combination with modern variations of classic bar-food dishes. Characterized by high grade materials, a generous geometry and an avantgarde-like atmosphere, resulting in a representative elegance, the Bar succeeds to match the representative elegance of Mandarin Oriental, Munich.
