DOMINIK G. REINER, GENERAL MANAGER MANDARIN ORIENTAL, MUNICH

Dominik G. Reiner was appointed General Manager of Mandarin Oriental, Munich in March 2018, bringing with him over 14 years of experience in the luxury hospitality industry.

A native Bavarian, Dominik first joined the brand as a management trainee at Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London in 2004, and has held several senior management positions at Mandarin Oriental properties in Europe and the Americas. His most recent post however, was as General Manager of Soho House Berlin, a private members' club and hotel.

Dominik holds a Master of Business Administration degree with distinction from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology University, and was awarded an academic degree in Business Administration from the ISM International School of Management, where he studied Tourism and Hotel Management in Germany, Hawaii and New Zealand.

With his strong background, well-founded experience and knowledge of the Group, Dominik is perfectly positioned to lead this award-winning property. He speaks German, English and some Spanish.
