MANDARIN ORIENTAL, NEW YORK TO REOPEN ON 1 APRIL 2021

Hong Kong, 24 March 2021 – Forbes Five-Star Mandarin Oriental, New York has announced that as of 1 April 2021 the hotel will once again be welcoming guests.

The anticipated reopening debuts a new dining experience, MO Lounge, along with enhanced safety measures and programming designed to ensure wellbeing yet still deliver the service excellence for which Mandarin Oriental is renowned.

Ideal for guests and locals alike, MO Lounge is located adjacent to the hotel’s lobby and features breath-taking views of the Manhattan skyline and Central Park. The menu features the finest locally sourced and sustainable ingredients, accompanied by an extensive selection of beverages, spirits and cocktails.

Guests will also have the opportunity to re-experience the ultimate in wellness at the hotel’s Five-Star Spa. The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, New York is an oasis of rejuvenation and relaxation and offers the Group’s signature therapies and treatments in a meditative setting.

To mark the reopening, the hotel has created a range of packages and offers with amenable terms, recognising the importance of flexibility in the current climate. The aptly titled ‘Travel Again’ package offers a saving of up to 20% off Best Available Rates and is available until 7 September 2021.
