RODARTE UNVEILS SECOND LIMITED-EDITION SCARF EXCLUSIVELY FOR MANDARIN ORIENTAL, NEW YORK DURING NEW YORK FASHION WEEK

Hong Kong, 22 February 2016 – The Five-Star Mandarin Oriental, New York and designers Kate and Laura Mulleavy, founders of the award-winning luxury fashion brand Rodarte, are excited to debut the second scarf in a limited-edition series designed exclusively for the property. Launching during New York Fashion Week, the scarf is inspired by the property’s expansive views of the Hudson River and Manhattan’s west side. It will be available for purchase at Mandarin Oriental, New York starting on Friday, February 19, 2016.

Ideal for the stylish jetsetter or the accessories enthusiast, the second scarf was inspired by the sweeping views of the Hudson River from the property. A delicate ripple pattern featuring shades of teal, gray and black is meant to evoke the calming ebb and flow of the river, an element that is captured within the property’s newly restyled one-bedroom Hudson River View Suite. The scarf measures 48 inches by 48 inches, is made of 100% modal and will retail for USD 350 at the hotel’s 35th floor Spa Boutique.

“With the second scarf in our series for Mandarin Oriental, New York, we hoped to extend our theme of design inspired by the amazing views from the hotel. With the first scarf, we took the essence of the views of Central Park. With the second scarf in our series, we wanted to capture the fluidity and movement of water as seen from the hotel when you overlook the expansive view of the Hudson River,” says Rodarte’s Laura Mulleavy of the collaboration.

The inaugural scarf in the limited-edition series launched in September 2015. The first design featured an intricate black and white pattern reminiscent of the tree branches in Central Park during the winter season, complemented by a subtle stripe of orchid purple that is signature to the hotel’s signature restaurant, Asiate.
