MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PARIS ANNOUNCES STYLISH FESTIVE CELEBRATIONS WITH DINING, SHOPPING AND ACCOMMODATION OFFERS

Hong Kong, 5 November 2021 – Mandarin Oriental, Paris is delighted to announce a roster of distinctive Holiday experiences and offers for the Christmas and New Year season. Adding a bit more ‘twinkle’ to the City of Lights, the 2021 Holiday offers include enticing festive menus, two exclusive Pop-ups (a winter garden bar and an enchanting French toy store), and a magical Festive Celebrations in Paris accommodation package.

Holiday Dining

Gourmands visiting Mandarin Oriental, Paris over the winter holidays have a feast in store. Chef Thierry Marx will reinterpret festive fare with a four-course menu at Camélia for dinner throughout December, and for lunch on Christmas Day and New Year's Day; and guests can enjoy a very special six-course champagne dinner on Christmas Eve. To celebrate New Year's Eve, Chef Thierry will prepare an exceptional culinary experience for dinner at Sur Mesure, with seven courses paired with champagne. Or guests can choose Chef's six-course menu at Camélia, which will showcase lobster, foie gras and other "seasonal stars". ( Holiday Menu pricing and dates included below)

EXCLUSIVE POP-UPS

Mandarin Oriental, Paris will host a pop-up bar with Cognac Martell from 18 November throughout winter. Bar 8's terrace will be transformed, featuring a spectacular design inspired by the iconic Cognac barrels, and staff will offer exclusive cocktails for guests to savour in the covered and heated garden. This charming setting for winter evenings will include a Gospel concert on 16 December and live DJ on New Year's Eve. Another Gospel concert will be offered to get a feel of the Christmas spirit at Camélia on 19 December during lunchtime.

And for the little ones, Au Nain Bleu, from the Saint Honoré district of Paris, will bring a pop-up shop to the hotel lobby from 7 to 24 December. Its high-quality selection will include beautiful and traditional wooden toys, dolls and soft toys – all perfect for gifting.
