EASTER TREATS AT MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PARIS THIS SPRING

Hong Kong, 23 February 2018 – Mandarin Oriental, Paris will bring the countryside into the heart of Paris for its Easter holiday festivities. Families and friends enjoying an Easter break at the five-star hotel will discover a child-friendly animal-petting “farm”, delicious seasonal fare and an Easter egg hunt. To make the most of these springtime treats, guests can book the One More Night accommodation offer that gives them a third night’s stay free.

To celebrate Easter Sunday on 1 April, Michelin-starred chef Thierry Marx and his team at Camélia will use fresh spring ingredients to offer a special brunch menu. Dishes will include Soft-boiled organic egg, green asparagus and truffled sabayon, and Saddle of lamb with candied tomato beans. Easter brunch is priced at EUR 128 per person (EUR 58 for children).

While parents enjoy their Easter Sunday brunch, children can take part in a traditional Easter egg hunt in the hotel garden. The winner will receive a MOOD Coffee service by prestigious French silversmith, Christofle. Designed especially for the hotel, the piece is engraved with the Parisian skyline.

Another Easter Sunday treat for families will be the hotel garden’s pop-up “farm”, where children can stroke and feed goats, hens and rabbits.

A chocolate ‘egg’ created by Pastry Chef Adrien Bozzolo will be available at the hotel’s Cake Shop from 25 March to 1 April, priced EUR 71. Shaped like a globe, the Easter egg is covered with a 70% Guanaja chocolate and filled with dried almonds, hazelnuts and raisins.

Guests booking the hotel’s One more night accommodation offer will enjoy a complimentary third night. This offer is available until 8 April 2018 for a minimum three-night stay in all categories, from EUR 975 per night in a Deluxe room.
