

DISCOVER PRAGUE BY BOAT WITH MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PRAGUE

Hong Kong, 9 August 2017 – Couples can avoid the crowds and discover Prague from its waterways with a new luxury accommodation offer from Mandarin Oriental, Prague. By booking the hotel's Prague by Boat package two guests can take a private cruise on the Vltava River and romantic water channels of Lesser Town while enjoying a selection of gourmet treats on board.

Located in the heart of the historic Lesser Town, a few steps from the Vltava River and Devil's Channel, Mandarin Oriental, Prague is a peaceful urban retreat with five star facilities and renowned levels of service.

The Prague by Boat experience begins with the boat's captain meeting guests at the hotel lobby and escorting them to a private pier from where they embark on a 60-minute tour that can be tailored to their preferences. Cruising along Prague's picturesque waterways aboard an elegant catamaran they can see iconic sights, such as the Charles Bridge and National Theatre, while relaxing in comfort with fine wine and delicacies prepared by Executive Chef, Zdeněk Křížek.

The Prague by Boat package is available until October 2017, and includes:

- Luxury accommodation at Mandarin Oriental, Prague
- Daily buffet breakfast served at the hotel's signature Spices Restaurant and Bar
- A 60-minute private boat cruise for two exploring historic Prague and the charming water channels of Lesser Town
- Boat refreshments for two

Package rates start from EUR 518 for a minimum of two nights' stay, including 15% VAT. Package is based on double occupancy and is subject to availability.
