Peaceful Location

Superbly located in the Malá Strana district, the picturesque “Little Quarter” in the heart of Prague’s rich historic centre, the hotel is within easy walking distance of the Golden City’s major tourist attractions. Adjacent to the Czech Museum of Music and only a five-minute walk to the beautiful Charles Bridge, Mandarin Oriental, Prague offers the best of the historical location and a sophisticated ambience with subtle Asian touches.

Historical Ambience

The Monastery Lounge, the former cloisters with soaring ceilings and tall baroque columns, is a spectacular and popular event venue. Exceptional banqueting and conference services, along with a further 79 elegant rooms that incorporate the latest technology, make Mandarin Oriental, Prague ideal for hosting sophisticated events of up to 130 people. A 172-square-metre Grand Ballroom with a 6.5-metre high vaulted ceiling is the centrepiece of the event facilities. A private entrance and dramatic pre-function space make Mandarin Oriental, Prague the location of choice for VIP meetings and events as well as destination weddings and celebrations.

Exquisite Dining

Hotel’s signature restaurant Essensia offers a unique two-part menu combining modern Czech cuisine with authentic Asian flavours. Distributed across five rooms with vaulted ceilings, each with its own architectural style, it is the ideal venue for a leisurely breakfast, stylish business lunch, a romantic dinner or celebration. The vaulted wine cellar guards an extensive array of wines from both the old and new worlds as well as some of the finest selections from the boutique wineries of Bohemia; the cellar is available for private events such as wine tastings, small cocktail parties or private dinners. By contrast, the hotel’s award-winning BAREGO bar makes for a stunning contemporary alternative and is a popular spot for the city’s movers and shakers.
