MANDARIN ORIENTAL, PRAGUE LAUNCHES CULTURAL WEEKEND OFFER

Hong Kong, 23 October 2017 – Mandarin Oriental, Prague has launched a luxury weekend accommodation package for guests who want to discover the city's wealth of culture. Guests booking the hotel's Luxury Cultural Weekend in Prague package will receive passes to a highly-acclaimed arts event, a VIP shopping card and stylish guidebook.

One of Europe's great cultural centres, Prague is home to many beautiful buildings, vibrant theatres and impressive art galleries that somehow managed to survive war, revolution and economic turmoil down the centuries. A former fourteenth century monastery, guests will discover the hotel is itself a fine example of Prague architecture, and exudes great tranquillity.

Guests can choose which cultural event they visit from a carefully compiled selection presented by the hotel's Clefs d'Or Concierge team. These include an exhibition of Frantisek Kupka's work at neighbouring Museum Kampa, ballet and theatre premieres at the National Theatre, and live music at trendy lounge bar, Jazz Dock, which has relaxing views of the River Vltava.

Guests will be welcomed to their room with a guidebook, Prague by Artěl, an insider's perspective on the best places to visit in Prague, published by leading design store, Artěl, and a VIP shopping card for use on the city's most fashionable retail thoroughfare, Pařížská Street.

The Luxury Cultural Weekend in Prague package is available year-round, and includes:

- Luxury accommodation at the hotel
- Daily breakfast for two people at Spices Restaurant and Bar
- Passes for two people either to a ballet or play at the National Theatre, contemporary art exhibition at Museum Kampa, or live music evening at the Jazz Dock lounge bar
- A stylish guidebook, Prague by Artěl, to retain as a keepsake
- Exclusive VIP Shopping Card for spending on fashionable Pařížská Street
- Complimentary high-speed Internet access
