“Bamboo represents the evergreen and oriental spirit. Understated, elegant and artistic: these are my first impressions of Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai, which translate into oriental beauty and aesthetics. I’m greatly honoured to be invited as part of the celebration of the hotel’s 10th Anniversary,” says Sean Wu. He continues, “The past three years have been challenging but our passion for travel, lifestyle and good food has never stopped. As China welcomes world travellers again, I would like to join hands with Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai to invite everyone to rediscover oriental beauty.”

All artworks are made from recycled green glass bottles, which are ground into fine particles then combined with natural resin. Through this collaboration, the hotel hopes to inspire people to take action towards a more sustainable future.
