RESTAURANTS AND BARS

With its timeless elegance, central location and Arabian warmth and hospitality, Al Faisaliah Hotel is one of the city's finest and most impeccable dining destinations.

Entertaining at this hotel is a delightful experience of gourmet dining in opulent interiors together with panoramic views. The hotel boasts seven wonderful restaurants and cafés representing an alluring choice of world-favourite cuisines, from European to Chinese.

The Globe

The hotel's magnificent signature restaurant, The Globe, is a unique and much sought-after gourmet venue on top of the world in the golden sphere at the tip of Al Faisaliah Tower.

While dining, guests enjoy spectacular views and a new perspective of the Kingdom's capital. The restaurant's dramatic three-story dome and its delicious modern European cuisine come together to create an unmatched, fine dining experience.

The restaurant includes the exclusive Asir Lounge, a dedicated cigar lounge also offering an à la carte menu, and with remarkable views of Riyadh.

The Globe is open for afternoon tea and dinner.

La Brasserie

Dining becomes a collaborative and exciting experience at La Brasserie, a multi-faceted, interactive theatre of food where guests enjoy watching the chefs preparing and cooking authentic international cuisine. The relaxed chef-to-guest and pan-to-plate style of service is a favourite amongst diners.

La Brasserie is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

La Brasserie Café

Open 5pm to midnight, La Brasserie Café is a popular place to meet in a relaxed al fresco setting serving teas, coffees and exquisite desserts.

Joud Lounge

Open daily 7am to midnight, this elegant luxury lounge with its beautiful natural stone flooring and its curved floor-to-ceiling glimmering glass panels inspired by a desert oasis offers a spectacular welcome to visitors. Guests can relax under a sparkling chandelier and enjoy sublime hand-crafted treats from the patisserie, savoury bites, afternoon tea and coffee, and striking cocktails with a local and international twist.

LPM Restaurant and Café

Ingredients like sun-soaked artichokes, lemons, olives, courgettes, tomatoes, peppers and girolles, fresh seafood, meat and pasta of the French Mediterranean are the inspiration behind this popular eatery. It is a favourite for guests looking for casual and relaxed dining, a joyful ambience and exciting menus.

Mamo Michelangelo

To Mamo, the founder of the original restaurant in Antibes, fine food is all about bringing the warmth and passion of Italy and the south of France together with delightful ingredients like truffles, tomatoes, burrata and porcinis. This restaurant's lively atmosphere complements signatures such as truffle focaccia, truffle raviolins, traditional tiramisu and lemon tart.

Mamo Michelangelo is open for lunch and dinner, with an afternoon and evening lounge.

Meraki

This Greek restaurant, with its sun-drenched terrace, is a great place to unwind and watch the chefs using inspiration from all over Greece, including bottarga from Mesologgi, tomatoes from Santorini and butter from Crete. The tantalising menu showcases the soul of Greece with seasonally changing sharing mezze dishes, chargrilled meats and whole fish dishes.

Meraki is open for lunch and dinner.

Yauatcha

From a fun rooftop kitchen, Yauatcha offers carefully crafted dim sum, authentic Chinese dishes, Singapore noodles and delicate pastries. This is a lovely place to sample fine Oriental cooking and enticing flavours in a memorable setting.

Meraki is open for lunch and dinner.

In-room dining

So much more than just room service, the hotel's in-room dining boasts a full menu and the option for guests to choose to have a private chef prepare favourite dishes, served by a personal butler.

In-room dining is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
