MANDARIN ORIENTAL, WASHINGTON DC LAUNCHES MOBASE: REMOTE EXECUTIVE WORK AND LIVING SPACES

Hong Kong, 25 May 2021 – Mandarin Oriental, Washington DC has taken an innovative approach to the WFH (Working-From-Hotel) movement, with the launch of a new programme: MOBase, designed for discerning executives in need of a temporary residence and office space in the city.

The award-winning luxury hotel collaborated with Vari, design innovators for office and home workspaces, to convert a series of guest rooms into a hybrid of residential living and executive office space. Access to MOBase rooms is offered as a membership which can be shared within an organization, providing flexibility to both work and reside without the need for additional office space rental or permanent accommodation.

By day, members enjoy private work and entertaining space, while in the evening, the room effortlessly converts to a home-away-from-home with the reveal of a discreet murphy bed.

MOBase is priced from USD 4,500 per month and benefits include:

- Complimentary streaming Wi-Fi for up to four devices
- In-room printer
- 24-hour concierge
- Weekly housekeeping
- Vari height-adjustable electric desk, sofa, coffee table, armchair
- Queen-sized murphy bed
- Service credenza and mini fridge, coffee machine, microwave and dinnerware
- In-room wellness experiences
- Access to hotel amenities and services including the business centre, The Spa, heated indoor pool, Fitness Center, and dining outlets
- Storage for clothing and equipment for returning guests

“With remote working continuing for the foreseeable future, our goal with MOBase is to offer guests both travelling to D.C. and locals a space to live and work that is well-designed, safe, convenient, and provides a productive atmosphere. MOBase is unique in that guests can also take advantage of the hotel’s many amenities and central location in the city,” said Torsten van Dullemen, General Manager and Area Vice President of Operations for Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group.
