Our Recommendations in the City

Inspired by the Sanskrit word “Koza”, which means “box”, “chest” or “treasure”, Cirque du Soleil is set to reveal a circus in a box filled with tricks. The international cast of fifty acrobats stage death-defying acts on the ground and in the air, as well as plenty of laugh-out-loud antics choreographed to the beat of live jazz and funk.

Where: Central Harbourfront Event Space
9 Lung Wo Road, Central

When: From 19 April to 3 June, 2018

Price: Ranges from HKD488 to HKD1,888

In its sixth edition, Affordable Art Fair will be showcasing art pieces from over 115 galleries. Visitors will fall in love with a wide range of masterpieces, including traditional ink paintings, abstract canvases, stunning sculptures, and eye-catching photography.

Where: Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre
1 Expo Drive, Wan Chai

When: From 18 to 20 May, 2018

Price: Ranges from HKD165 to HKD200

The Cheung Chau Bun Festival is one of the liveliest events in Hong Kong. Set in picturesque Cheung Chau Island, it is only a short ferry ride from the Central Pier. Highlight of the festival is the “Bun Grabbing” contest where teams compete to grab the most buns on a 60-foot bun mountain, which is believed to bring luck and much more!

Where: Pak Tai Temple, Cheung Chau

When: From 19 to 23 May, 2018
