

Urban Photography Experiences

Vibrant Hong Kong never stops. Energetic, electric, pulsing with energy, its combination of diverse locations, eye-catching colour and light, fascinating people and constant movement make it the ideal destination for urban photography. This photography experience taps into the talent of Michael Kistler, a global photographer based in Hong Kong, who specialises in fine art urban photography. He will tailor-make a photographic journey according to your expertise and abilities, which takes in various locations around the city. You will learn new photography skills and tips.

Choose From the Following Five Experiences:

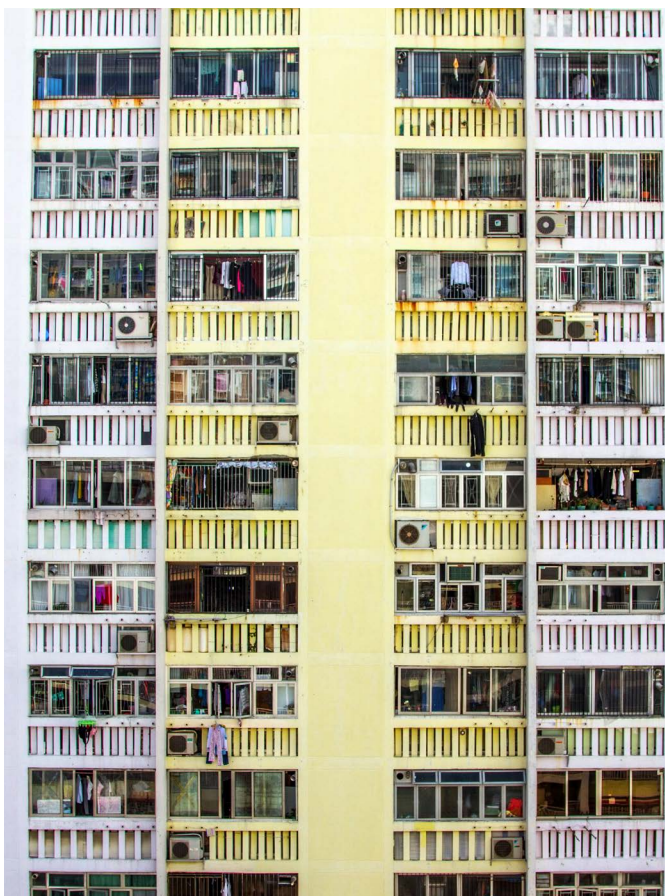

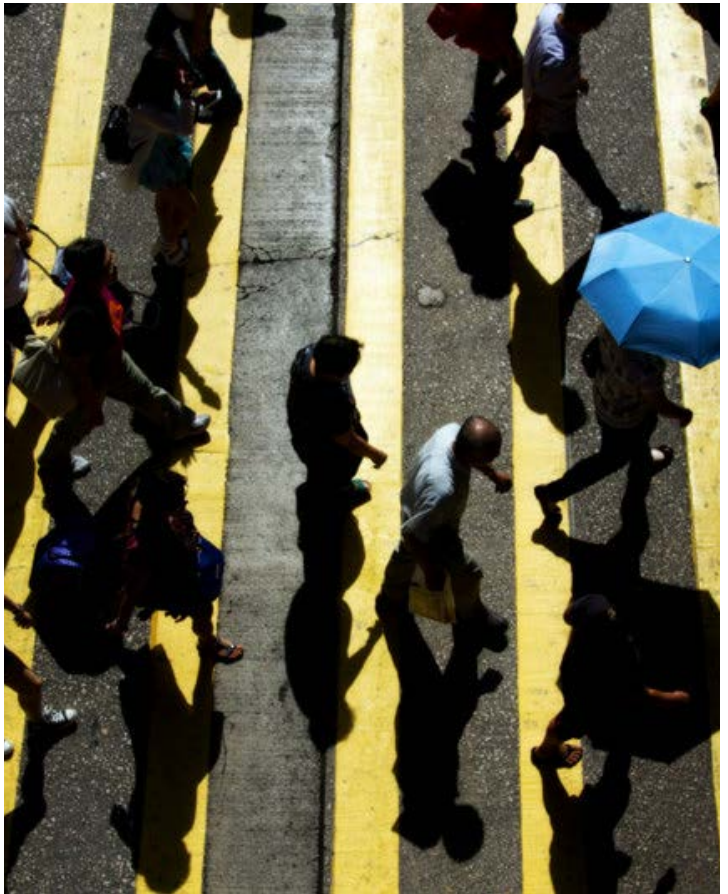

Architecture and geometry in Central, the heart of Hong Kong.

Perspective, shadows and movement near Hang Seng Bank skyscraper and the Central Mid-Levels Escalators, the longest outdoor covered escalator system in the world.

Composition and background in Soho and on Hollywood Road, an attractive historic neighbourhood with narrow streets filled with restaurants, boutiques, art galleries and antique shops.

Street art, side alleys and portraits in the Western Districts of Sheung Wan and the urban cool area of Sai Ying Poon.

Documenting street life in Central's wet markets and along Graham Street, one of the oldest street market districts in Hong Kong.
