Luigi Stinga, Chef de Cuisine
Mandarin Grill

Originally from Naples, Campania in Italy, Luigi Stinga carries a wealth of experience. His culinary journey features multiple roles at renowned Michelin-starred restaurants in Italy such as 1-Michelin star Salotti and L'Accanto; 2-Michelin star Don Alfonso, Quattro Passi and Il Pellicano; and 3-Michelin star Piazza Duomo.

Prior to joining Mandarin Grill, Stinga was working in 2-Michelin star restaurant Seta in Mandarin Oriental, Milan where he was mentored by Antonio Guida; one of the most celebrated chefs in Italy.

THE INTERIOR DESIGN OF MANDARIN GRILL

Taking full advantage of the floor-to-ceiling views onto lush KLCC Park, HLA Design's vision was to bring nature into the restaurant.

From the point of arrival right through to the main dining area, the designers deployed garden wall panels, sustainable woods, live trees and mirrors to reflect the tropical gardens within the space.

A soothing colour palettes of natural greens, soft blues and natural woods combined with a light, uplifting ambiance for the all new Mandarin Grill.

"Italian cuisine is so much more than just pasta and pizza. I want to introduce authentic Italian dishes to Kuala Lumpur. In Italy, there's always a connection between the restaurant and their guests. This is what I am hoping to achieve here - building a connection between the restaurant and the guests through remarkable dishes" Luigi Stinga, Chef de Cuisine
