Sunday “Roast Potato Time”

Plenty of people are credited with introducing the tuber to England, including Sir Walter Raleigh and Sir Francis Drake, but it is more likely to have been the astronomer and adventurer Thomas Harriot, who accompanied Raleigh on an expedition to the New World, and who in an account of his travels, A Briefe and True Report of the New Found Land of Virginia (1588), gives this account of the humble spud:

"...kind of roots of round form, some of the bigness of walnuts, some far greater...Being boiled or sodden they are very good meat."
