MANDARIN ORIENTAL

Your journey begins here

MILAN

“Milan, for me, is a city of discovery. You can find some amazing gardens behind some great houses; I also love finding beautiful galleries and incredible shops, but you have to explore. And the food is amazing.”

- Francisco Costa, Designer

A nighttime photograph of Piazza del Duomo in Milan, Italy. The Duomo di Milano, a Gothic cathedral, is the central focus, illuminated with warm lights. To the left, the Fontana del Gallo, a bronze equestrian statue, stands on a large stone base. The Piazza is filled with people, and the wet pavement reflects the lights. The sky is dark, and streetlights are visible on the right side.
