

Oriental Glow

Oriental Glow is an exclusive facial treatment that combines the methodology of Biologique Recherche and the wellness rituals of the Oriental tradition, true signatures of The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Milan.

Thanks to Biologique Recherche's precious formulas, rich in active ingredients, your facial skin will immediately appear more toned and glowing.

During the treatment, the therapists' skillful hands will guide you in a moment of pure relaxation: from the application of the mask to the stimulation of specific central points, Oriental Glow will help you regain a deep psycho-physical balance.

The experience is further personalized with the guided inhalation of essential oils: Sweet Orange, ideal for balancing the nervous system and with energizing power, or Lavender, with calming and anti-stress effects.

Reservation is required.
