Ramadan at heart

RAMADAN AT HEART

Mandarin Oriental, Muscat, celebrates its first Ramadan, honouring Omani traditions and the close connections of its communities.

At the heart of this celebration, renowned Omani artist Alia Al Farsi, known for her creation of the signature fan, envisions a specially created artwork that captures the essence of family bonds, beauty of Omani culture, and the traditions of Ramadan.

Guests are invited to embrace the warmth and unity that define the season with timeless traditions, live entertainment, and a gourmet at home experience.

FAMILY TRADITIONS BY ALIA AL FARSI

Designed by Alia Al Farsi, the artwork showcases an Omani family gathered outdoors under a serene starlit sky. The focal point is the crescent moon, glowing softly and symbolising its significance in marking the beginning of Ramadan and Eid.

The night sky, deep and velvety emphasising the tranquility and spiritual depth of Ramadan nights. The boy holds a traditional lantern, known as a Fanoos. Its warm glow illuminates their faces with a golden light, symbolising guidance and the joy of togetherness.

The lantern, intricately designed with geometric patterns and Omani motifs, also represents this enduring tradition during Ramadan. In the backdrop, a captivating silhouette showcases the enduring architectural charm of Oman's towns, adorned with historic homes and majestic forts.

This is a celebration of family bonds, the beauty of Omani culture, and the traditions of Ramadan, inviting guests to embrace the warmth and unity that define the season.

SILK ROAD WONDERS AT RAWYA

Sunset to 9:30pm

Join us at Rawya to enjoy flavours inspired by the Silk Road journey, complemented by a special selection of Omani dishes. Featuring recipes passed down through generations, with fresh seafood sourced from the Omani coastlines, specialty ingredients from the mountains and the historic home of frankincense in the Dhofar region, as well as East African-inspired dishes.

With a range of cold and hot mezze, alongside traditional carving stations where our chefs prepare Arabic grills, sushi and more. The desserts feature traditional Omani Halwa and more Ramadan delicacies. Throughout the evening, enjoy live Oud music surrounded by family and friends.
