MANDARIN ORIENTAL

Your journey begins here

BEIJING

The first Mandarin Oriental hotel in the Chinese capital is a fabulously luxurious boutique property overlooking the iconic landmark Forbidden City, the world's largest palace. With 73 rooms and suites, two stylish restaurants, a sophisticated bar, sublime spa and legendary Mandarin Oriental service, it is the place to stay in Beijing.

ANCIENT TREASURES

Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing, Beijing is situated amidst an architectural treasure trove of historic temples, palaces, mansions, museums and parks. It is a short stroll from the iconic Forbidden City.

IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

Located in the imperial heart of Beijing, the hotel lies just minutes from Tiananmen Square, on the upper floors of WF CENTRAL, the city's premium lifestyle retail destination. It is the only luxury boutique hotel offering Forbidden City views from its rooms, restaurants and bars.

ROOMS WITH A VIEW

Many of our stylish rooms and spacious suites offer terrace views of the magnificent Forbidden City. The first Mandarin Oriental hotel in Beijing has boutique-hotel intimacy, with just 73 rooms and suites, enhanced by Mandarin Oriental's world-famous service.

SPACIOUS COMFORT

Starting from 55sqm, our rooms and suites are among the largest in Beijing. With a stylish, comfortable design and generous spa-inspired bathrooms, they exude a sense of modern urban chic.

TAKE TIME OUT

Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing, Beijing has a tempting array of entertainment options, including two destination restaurants, a sophisticated bar, a world-class spa and, in the same building, a wide variety of luxury retail and lifestyle choices.

WORLD CLASS SPA

As part of Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group's award-winning spa family, The Spa at Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing, Beijing offers a serene wellness destination with excellent facilities and world-class treatments.

RELAX, REVIVE, REJUVENATE

There are four spacious suites, one with a Hammam style layout allowing guests to enjoy water-based therapies. A wide range of treatments, many using traditional Chinese techniques and ingredients, focus on relaxation, wellness and beauty.

ULTRA MODERN FACILITIES

A state-of-the-art fitness centre features the very latest hi-tech machines as well as a 25-metre lap pool. Naturally lit, the pool area features a glass skylight and ergonomic, gently warmed ceramic chairs along the side. Guests can also use the steam room.

DINE IN STYLE

Two destination restaurants, a casual café featuring dishes from a renowned chef and a classic, western-style grill, offer a choice of dining options.

DESTINATION DINING

The hotel's, casual-dining restaurant serve modern fusion Cantonese cuisine along with a lunchtime dim sum selection from experienced and talented team. Diners also enjoy a terrace view of the magnificent Forbidden City.

CONTEMPORARY GRILL

Classic dishes, cooked with fresh seasonal ingredients, feature on the menu of Mandarin Grill, a sister establishment to the famed Hong Kong destination. Diners at the Adam D. Tihany-designed restaurant, can book a table, banquette, or private room to enjoy prime steaks and succulent seafood.

SOPHISTICATED BAR

Inventive cocktails, an international DJ and a striking design make MO Bar the place to see and be seen. When the sun goes down, the action starts at this sophisticated lounge, where guests can sip Beijing-themed cocktails created by expert mixologists or savour a vintage malt whisky.

PEACEFUL PLACE

The quietest spot in the hotel is The Library, a place to relax and recharge, perhaps browsing through the collection of carefully selected books, or admiring the artwork, while enjoying a cup of tea or coffee. The Library also has a garden terrace, which is open during the warmer months.
